DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-25, 37-45 and 49-56 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
  - 2.1 Referring to claims 1-25, 37-45 and 49-56, Gong discloses protection domains to provide security in a computer system (see title). Gong teaches a method and apparatus are provided for maintaining and enforcing security rules using protection domains. As new code arrives at a computer, a determination is assigned to a protection domain based on the source from which the code is received. The protection domain establishes the permissions that apply to the code. In embodiments where the code to be executed by the computer belongs to object classes, an association is established between the protection domains and the classes of objects. When an object requests an action, a determination is made as to whether the action is permitted based on the class to which the object belongs and the association between classes and protection domains (see abstract and Figs 1-3).
  - 2.2 However, referring to the independent claims 1, 24, 25, 37, Gong does not teach or suggest the merging of two or more group permissions sets. With respect to the independent claims 49 and 53, Gong teaches establishing the protection domain for a class, but does not teach or suggest performing verification on the code assembly.
  - 2.3 Therefore, Gong does not anticipate claims 1-25, 37-45 and 49-56. There is no teachings of merging of two or more group permissions sets and performing verification on the code assembly found in the prior art. Therefore the instant claims cannot be rendered obvious by combination of Gong with any prior art.

3. In view of the reasons presented herein, claims 1-25, 37-45 and 49-56 are in condition for allowance.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
